With a record of 6-6-6, it could also be considered the season with the most unusual record. The team showed a lot of progress through the season and set some standards for future teams to play up to.

Matt Davis keeps the ball under control while staying a few feet ahead of the competition.

Girls Golf

The girls golf team for 1997 had a season of rebuilding. With all five varsity players graduated last year, we knew that there was much work to be done. Our first need was to have enough players to field a team. With some recruiting and some interested incoming freshmen, the girls were able to have nine players during home and away matches. The only returning player was team captain Janelle Riegsecker. Her playing experience and enthusiasm helped her other junior classmates Sarah Gray, Kelly Gorsuch and Geniese Trotter bolster the varsity ranks. Sophomores Missy Hooley, Kim Cormican and Amber Miller added talent and depth to the team. Incoming freshmen Danielle Schmidt and Stephanie Berry helped out in both varsity and junior varsity ranks. Overall we took our lumps with an 0-19 season. With lessons and much practice the future looks bright for the Northridge Girls golfers. -- Coach Cockman

Homecoming Dance

On the cold night of October 11, the Northridge football team played their homecoming game. Although they lost, they played long and hard. Immediately following the game there was a homecoming dance. With the new DJ, spectacular laser lights, and mystifying fog; it seemed like a fantasy to the students that waited so eagerly for 45 minutes to get into.

When the music started and the people finally began to dance, the old gym floor turned into a wild and exciting dance floor. For an hour and a half, people sweated to the old classics that we will always love to the hottest new dance beats that we are starting to love. Over all the dance was a great success and if you don't believe it, just check out how much fun these people are having.

Wow, look at Kyle Martin and Miah Grubert go as they dance to the newest dance craze Macarena at the Fall Dance.

Angie Beier sports her best moves at the Fall Homcoming Dance. The students danced to The Mamas and the Papas, The Carpenters, and The Beach Boys.

Wow, does Brandi Burdette have disco fever or what? She really breaks it on down when she goes to the Homecoming Dance.

"Who are they?" says Bryon Bontrager to Dan Albert and Eric Adams as they watch some chicks at the Fall Dance.

Jason Bontrager and Jeremy Neely show everyone how the really cool people dance at the fall homcoming dance.

SENIORS

For seniors this is the end of alot of things some good, some bad, but most of all this is the end of:
 Mrs. Smith haunting you about your hall pass
 Standing 25 minutes for those tarties (of course you had a good excuse)
 Teachers always asking where your homework is (My dog ate it)
 Saturday schools you did not deserve
 Those stupid seating charts (they never lasted anyways)
 Putting up with those immature freshman
 No more thesis papers
 Rushing to do last minute exit projects
 Sleeping in study hall because there isn't anything better to do.

I never expected to come to Goshen
College.

I thought it was too close to home, and I wanted my freedom and independence. To my surprise, GC gave me both. The people here are great and I have made many new friends who have the same morals, values and spiritual beliefs as me. I find that reassuring. I do not regret coming to Goshen College for one second!

You are truly a gift from God. The bud of a beautiful, dainty flower who has blossomed full with rich color. A flower who's fragrance touches, for a lifetime, those who come near you.

May God's love bless you as deeply as you bless others. You grace our lives with love and laughter everyday!
